AGREEMENT TO ASSIGN WINDFALLS TO CHARITY

Words printed in italics in this section of the application form are explained in the notes at the end.

- Paragraphs 2 to 6, below, will apply to me unless I am an exempt customer at the time when the account is opened.
- I agree with the Society that, if the right to any windfall benefits is granted to me after the account is opened, I will assign those windfall benefits to the selected charity unless the period between my account being opened and the conversion announcement date is more than 5 years (or, if applicable the shorter period).
- I authorise the Society and the successor to pass any windfall benefits direct to the selected charity (or to any other charity which the selected charity may nominate to receive those benefits), without notice to me.
- I understand that:
 - the Society has promised to transfer to the selected charity the benefit of the agreement which I have given under paragraph 2, above;
 - neither the Society nor the selected charity will release me from that agreement; and
 - any power of the Society to change the terms of its contract with me will not apply to any of the terms set out in this section of the application form.
- I authorise the Society to give the selected charity any information about me or any account which I have with the Society (now or in the future) - but only if the selected charity reasonably needs it regarding the agreement I have given under paragraph 2, above.
- I understand that the Society will require anyone who opens a share account (who is not then an exempt customer) to agree to assign to charity the right to any windfall benefits to which that person may become entitled. The terms of the agreement will be decided by the Society and may be different from the terms in paragraphs 1 to 5, above. This paragraph will no longer apply if the Society publishes a notice in the press of a decision by the Society that it will no longer require new shareholding members to enter into such agreements.

Notes - These notes apply to paragraphs 1 to 6, above:

- The "account" is the share account which you are applying to open by completing this form.
- The "conversion announcement date" means the date on which the Society makes a public announcement of a proposal to transfer its business to a successor.
- The "current terms" means terms which are the same as, or similar to, the terms set out in paragraphs 2 to 5 above.
- You are an "exempt customer" when you open the account if:
 - you have held shares in the Society on, and at all times since, 31 October 1999; or
 - you have already entered into an agreement with the Society binding you to the current terms; or
 - you belong to one of the groups of other people who, in the Society's opinion, do not need to be asked to agree to the current terms. A list of these groups is available from the Society at any time. The Society may alter the number and composition of the groups from time to time, but no alteration will apply retrospectively.
- A person "opens" an account either by opening a new account or by having an existing account transferred into his or her name (whether as sole or joint holder).
- The "selected charity" means the Charities Aid Foundation or, if it is at any time no longer a registered charity, any other charity or charities selected by it to receive assignments of windfall benefits.
- A "shorter period" is applicable if, when the Society opens your account, you belong to one of the groups of people who, in the Society's opinion, do not need to be asked to agree the usual 5 year period. A list of these groups, stating the periods applicable to them, is available from the Society at any time. The Society may alter the number and composition of the groups and the periods applicable to them from time to time, but no alteration will apply retrospectively.
- The "successor" is any company or other corporate body to which the Society transfers its business under Section 97 of the Building Societies Act 1986 (or under any provision which amends or replaces it).
- A "windfall benefit" is a benefit which a person has the right to receive as a shareholding member of the Society, under the terms of any future transfer of the Society's business to a successor (i.e., on a conversion or take-over), other than:-
 - the replacement of savings in a share account with the Society with savings in a deposit account with the successor, or
 - any benefit which the Society has decided may be kept by a person who has a number of accounts and was an exempt customer when opening one or more (but not all) of them. A list setting out the conditions which determine whether, and to what extent, such a person may keep a benefit is available from the Society at any time. These conditions may be altered by the Society from time to time, but no alteration will apply retrospectively.
- Where more than one of you is signing this form, paragraph 1 and (if applicable) paragraphs 2 to 6, above, apply to each of you separately.
- If the Society no longer exists following a merger with another building society, paragraphs 2 to 6, above, will still apply between you and the other society.

Additional Information

¹Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

²General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- a) Certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- b) A death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- c) The payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

³Limit of protection for joint accounts

In the case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

⁴Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request. Again, there are specific exceptions to this obligation.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account (if provided).

Exclusions

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

 - Financial institution
 - Investment firm

 - Reinsurance undertaking
 - Collective investment undertaking
 - Pension or retirement fund¹
 - Public authority, other than a small local authority.

The following deposits, categories of deposits or other instruments are no longer protected from 3 July 2015:
